Dermlmpact Grant Programme Terms and Conditions

As a recipient of the ILDS Dermlmpact Grant Programme, by signing the Funding Agreement, you agree to follow the instructions and complete the tasks listed below:

- To complete the project within 24 months of receiving the funds.
- To maintain timely communication with the ILDS Secretariat and respond promptly to all queries.
- To notify the ILDS Secretariat in the event that your project is delayed by more than three months and to submit a request for an adjustment to the project timeline, subject to ILDS approval.
- To complete and submit an interim report when a request for the report has been received from the ILDS Secretariat, providing an important update on the progress of the project.
- To attend the mid-project interview with a committee member of the International Foundation for Dermatology to report the progress of the project. The ILDS will only transfer the second instalment of the funds after the interim report is received and meets expectations.
- To complete and submit a final report when a request for this report has been received from the ILDS Secretariat or upon completion of the project, reviewing the completed project and the success of the project as per your ILDS Dermlmpact application.
- To submit a financial report that accounts for all budgeted expenditure, including any underspend where relevant, upon completion of the project.
- To produce videos and photos demonstrating the impact of the project, which may be utilised by the ILDS to amplify the success of the project.
- Failure to submit the requested report within the specified timeframe, or to maintain timely communication with the ILDS Secretariat, may result in the following actions:
 - A request by the ILDS for the return of the allocated funds.
 - Ineligibility to apply for or be considered for future ILDS Grant Programmes.
- To have in place appropriate policies and procedures to support the contracts with experts and project staff, ensuring no employer responsibilities are transferred in any explicit or implicit way to the ILDS.
- To ensure that you have the consent of any individual or group of individuals before you share their details with ILDS, whether personal information or through photos and videos.

- To acknowledge that the project has been supported by the ILDS DermImpact Grant Programme, including the joint ILDS and IFD logo below.

- To ensure that Slavery and Human Trafficking (as defined under the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015) is not taking place in any part of its business or in any part of its supply chain. If you need more information on the ILDS Modern Slavery Statement, please email info@ilds.org.
- To ensure that the project is delivered in an ethical and honest manner, and is committed to implementing and enforcing systems that prevent bribery and corruption (as defined under the UK Bribery Act 2010). If you need more information on the ILDS Anti- Bribery and Corruption Policy, please email info@ilds.org.
